What is Astrology

Astrology is the study of the effects of planetary forces upon man. It is not fortune telling. It is one of the best methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character is destiny. If man can change his character, then man will have changed his destiny. The main uses of astrology are diagnosis of health and sickness, character analysis, vocational guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Astrology does not show anything but tendencies. A man can rule his stars by exerting his will. If a man decides to flow with the tide of life, then the tendencies indicated in the birth chart will at some time have their effect. The one thing a birth chart does not show is the WILL of the individual and how he may exert it. The matter of exercising free will is left entirely up to the individual. The wise man rules his stars, the fool is ruled by them. Astrology forewarns and being forewarned, a man is thus forearmed to better cope with the struggles of life.

It is the MASCULINE PRINCIPLE in contrast to that symbolised by the MOON. It is personified by RULERS; LEADERS; PUBLIC FIGURES; the FAMOUS; and PERSONALITIES.*

Sun in 10th house

This is a very powerful placement of the Sun and indicates ambition and the desire to lead. You enjoy assuming responsibility, power and authority. There is strong managerial skill evident in your nature.

TENTH HOUSE

The Tenth House is commonly referred to as the House of Social Status. It is about the place we have attained in our social (or work/ career) grouping and in society as a whole. Think status, the authority it conveys, and consequently, the role we take in our community.

You are dignified and have a strong will to succeed. You desire to make your mark in the world and have a strong sense of purpose. You work hard to hone required skills and qualifications and you desire recognition and reward for a good job done. Often recognition means more than monetary reward. You believe in leading by example.

This is a common position for politicians.

There is often a strong identification with the father and he may be an influence in your life direction. With this placement identity is often connected to career and life achievements. You like to be seen as strong, influential and authoritative.

You desire honor and recognition, to which end you will work hard to acquire the necessary skills and knowledge to achieve this. You have a strong moral sense and abhor anything demeaning to your dignity and moral responsibility. You feel required to set a good example for others. Nobility and the ability to rise above pettiness and trivialities is your strong point.

Sun in Pisces

Pisceans are sympathetic, compassionate, unassuming, idealistic, intuitive, congenial, adaptable, psychic, emotional, creative, secretive, versatile, imaginative and self-sacrificing. They can also be impressionable, indecisive, self-pitying, hypersensitive and changeable. They need to serve others. Pisceans are sentimental and romantic in love. At times they expect too much from others and then feel hurt if the other person doesn't come through for them. They have a strong tendency to place their loved one on a pedestal. This leads to disillusionment when they discover their loved one has faults, too. The symbol for Pisces is two fish going in opposite directions connected by a cord. One fish represents the personality and the other represents the spirit. These two opposing forces operate within a Piscean, causing insecurity and indecisiveness. Handling these forces in a positive manner is very difficult for them. Some will seek to escape these pressures through eating, alcohol, drugs or other excesses. That is what one of the fish represents. The other fish represents the Piscean rising to great heights through self-denial, sacrifice and then ultimate attainment. Pisceans learn through suffering and they need to learn perseverance. Pisceans tend to absorb the information and environment around them. Thus it is important that they surround themselves with uplifting people and circumstances. Pisceans are creative, self-sufficient people whose minds are extremely active, due to their strong imagination, which they can sometimes get carried away with. They sense and feel things that others are not aware of.

This house position brings an ability to heal and a natural yearning to be of service to others often sacrificing yourself in some way. You may fulfil your inclination to heal by following a career in nursing, medicine or pharmacy or maybe as a traditional herbal healer; but life often compels you to pursue matters related to health and well-being and this can be a very fulfilling pursuit.

You have to develop strong boundaries as with Neptune in the natural house of Virgo it is easy to become a doormat or to take on the problems of your clients, patients or customers to the detriment of your own life. So while you get a great deal of emotional satisfaction from helping others, you may lose yourself in the process.
